SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of :

60 month(s)

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: PATRICK KEOGAN

CASE NUMBER: 1: 16 CR 10244 - 01 - DPW

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

14) The defendant shall not consume any alcoholic beverages.

15) The defendant is to participate in a program for substance abuse counseling as directed by the Probation Office, which program may include testing, not to exceed 104 drug tests per year, to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of alcohol or drugs. The defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of services for such treatment based on the ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.

16) The defendant is to participate in a mental health treatment program as directed by the Probation Office. The defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of services for such treatment based on the ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.

17) The defendant is prohibited from participating in any gambling activities, including casino gambling, on-line gambling, lotteries, instant scratch tickets, Keno, and any other activities similar in nature.

18) The defendant must attend a gambling-specific treatment program and/or meetings, as directed by the Probation Office. The defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of services for such programming based on the ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.

19) Registration: Pursuant to the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006, the defendant shall register as a sex offender not later than 3 business days (from release or sentencing, if granted probation). The defendant will keep the registration current, in each jurisdiction where he resides, is employed or is a student. The defendant must, not later than 3 business days after each change in name, residence, employment, or student status, appear in person in at least one jurisdiction in which he is registered and inform that jurisdiction of all changes in the information. Failure to do so may not only be a violation of this condition but also a new federal offense punishable by up to 10 years' imprisonment. In addition, the defendant must read and sign the Offender Notice and Acknowledgment of Duty to Register as a Sex Offender per the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006 form.

20) Computer/Internet: The defendant must allow the installation of computer internet monitoring software on approved internet capable devices, but may still use a computer for work purposes that has been previously approved by the Probation Office. The program(s) used will be designed to identify, for the Probation Office, the viewing, downloading, uploading, transmitting, or otherwise using any images or content of a sexual or otherwise inappropriate nature. The defendant must not attempt to remove or otherwise defeat such systems, and must allow the Probation Office to examine such computer and receive data from it at any reasonable time.

21) The defendant must advise anyone using the monitored internet capable devices that those devices are being monitored by the Probation Office.

22) The defendant must not possess or use any computer or internet-capable device without prior notice to the Probation Office. Any such device should not be used to knowingly access or view sexually explicit materials as defined in 18 U.S.C. §2256(2)(A).

23) The defendant must disclose all account information relative to internet access, social networking, and email, including user names and passwords, to the Probation Office. The defendant must also, if requested, provide a list of all software/hardware on your computer, as well as telephone, cable, or internet service provider billing records and any other information deemed necessary by the Probation Office to monitor his computer usage.

24) The defendant must provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information for purposes of monitoring compliance with the imposed computer access/monitoring conditions, including, but not limited to, credit card bills, telephone bills, and cable/satellite television bills.
